DESCRIPTION

6. Property category building If district, number of documented resources
- *7. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the property, including condition, boundaries, related features, surroundings, and (if appropriate) architectural style.

The structure is a good example of a Craftsman Bungalow. The facade displays a double hooded gabled roof with exposed rafters. A large porch is covered by one of the projecting gables which is supported by piers sitting on brick pedestals. The heavy compact volume of this house and brick details such as the pedestals and corbeled chimney, hooded gables and banded windows are features of the Craftsman style. The house is in good condition and does not appear to be altered. It is surrounded by mature trees and landscaping which enhances its historical setting.

SIGNIFICANCE AND EVALUATION

- 18. Context for evaluation: Theme: Architecture Area Santa Cruz County
 Period 1850-1940 Property type single family prop Context formally developed? Yes

*19. Briefly discuss the property's importance within the context. Use historical and architectural analysis as appropriate. Compare with similar properties.

Unlike rural Santa Cruz where the chief architectural style the vernacular farm house, Live Oak displays examples of popular residential styles common to a number of historical periods. While the City of Santa Cruz has distinct tracts with a significant number of houses representing a particular style, communities in the County such as Live Oak tend to have a variety of styles in a small area, sometimes on a single block. This particular house is one of the best examples of the Craftsman Bungalow to be found in the community. The fact that it does not appear to have been altered and is on a large lot with mature landscaping makes it an especially valuable historic resource.
